

George Logan BA,MA,CertEd,LGSM,LLAM,LTCL,LLCM, ADB(Ed)

Born in Northern Ireland, George became an adjudicator member of the British and International Federation of Festivals in 1983. Much of his career has been in education, working until 2015 mainly in the regulation and inspection of schools and children's services in the UK, both maintained and independent. He is currently an accredited consultant in the UAE. He became an examiner initially for the Poetry Society and, in 1989, for the Guildhall School (later Trinity-Guildhall, now Trinity College London) and examines widely across the British Isles and overseas in speech, drama and musical theatre. He also works as a moderator, examiner-trainer and reviewer for Trinity College. Despite a busy working life, he enjoys adjudicating festivals at home and abroad.
