

Lulu Dale BEd (Hons)

After winning the coveted Sylvia Strutt Award for Verse Speaking at the Royal Central School of Speech & Drama, Lulu went on to gain an Acting Diploma at the Richmond Drama School where she was short-listed for one of the Richmond Drama Awards. She then worked as an actress and was a freelance radio artist for the BBC and ran her own Performing Arts classes for more than 15 years.

Since having her family, she has taught in schools in Sussex & Surrey & is also currently the Senior Assessor for the English Board.

Lulu's Drama interests are not just as a teacher and performer; she has also been involved with the Speech & Drama Section of the Reigate & Redhill Music and Drama Festival for many years and continues to prepare students for scholarships, drama schools, the National Youth Theatre, National Youth Music Theatre, film, television, theatre and radio.
